

Vogue Ever After

67. JANEL HERRANZ PHOTOGRAPHY specialises in couple, elopement and wedding photography, drawing inspiration from poetry, fashion and music to capture your most cherished moments. Based in Tampa, Florida and available worldwide. Visit www.janelherranz.com and Instagram @janelherranzphotography

68. CAROLYN ROWE is a destination wedding and elopement photographer based in St Petersburg, Florida. She perfectly captures timeless, emotive and dreamy frames with a specialised vintage feel. Visit www.carolynrowephoto.com and Instagram @carolynrowephoto

69. Inspired by fashion, art and architecture, California-based DIANE SOTERO PHOTOGRAPHY offers luxury clients incomparable and bespoke film and digital photography expertise. Serving couples across Europe, the United States and luxury destinations worldwide, Diane captures delicate, fresh and editorial-style imagery. Visit dianesotero.com and Instagram @dianesotero

70. LITTLE MISS BOYCO is a wedding photographer based in the Northeast of England and available to travel worldwide. Wiesia approaches her photography with a relaxed and natural style, with a focus on capturing the emotions of the couple and their guests. She creates a story of the day through her images so her clients can relive the feelings of their wedding day. Visit www.littlemissboyco.co.uk and Instagram @littlemissboyco

71. LAURA POWERS specialises in modern, untraditional wedding photography and intimate weddings. Her photographs imbue a timeless, romantic and chic feel, capturing honest, organic candid moments. A destination travelling wedding photographer, Laura is available worldwide. Visit www.laurapowersphoto.com and Instagram @laurapowersphoto

72. MIMO was founded by Melbourne photographer and creative director, Caitlin O'Grady. Her love for fashion and movement is evident throughout Mimo's editorial photographic style and creative experimentation. Mimo has now progressed to a small dream team of wedding photographers and videography legends, all with a coherent style and with one main goal: to deliver your feel-good wedding moments in a fun, candid and photo-journalistic way. Visit www.mimoweddings.com and Instagram @mimo.weddings

Vogue's Gallery

1. MELANIE BLISS's collections are inspired by her fantasised memories of marine expeditions and dreamy meanderings through waterscapes and trees. This artist expresses her emotions onto large canvases through energetic and textural mark making, using acrylics with palette knives, brushes and her hands. By painting landscapes that depict the vibrancy of nature, she summons marvelous, exotic places. She is described as a 'transportational artist'. Available internationally, with commissions accepted. Visit melaniebliss.com and follow @melaniebliss_art on Instagram.

2. MARCELLE MANSOUR, is an award-winning Australian multidisciplinary visual artist and author, who has exhibited nationally and internationally in Biennales. Her paintings are radiant and significant in reflecting humanistic topics, expressive portraits, and vivid colours, rich in evoking feelings of curiosity. Discover her powerful work online at marcellemansour.com.au and follow @marcelle_mansour

3. American Artist LILY PERRY creates bold and engaging paintings through a free experimental process. She paints with different mediums including acrylic, house paint, graphite, sharpies and pastels. She often adds unexpected elements such as glass or duct tape to her work and enjoys exploring contrast and scale. Her work can be found in galleries and private collectors' homes internationally. Find out more at lilyperryfineart.com and follow along @lilyperryfineart

4. AVRIL EGAN is an Irish artist and illustrator. Her art can be described as a triumph in perspective. These works are recognisable at a distance, due to the particular attention given to layering textures, detailing and personification. Visit her website eganart1997.wixsite.com/eganart and follow her Instagram @EganArt1997 or contact her via email eganart1997@gmail.com

5. RAISA AMBROS has a special passion for colour, which she mixes in an original way to create her captivating abstracts. This piece is entitled 'Freedom of Movement'. Her abstracts are rich in details, which playfully open up to an infinite number of interpretations. Ambros has exhibited work internationally, with Solo show in Los Angeles in 2020 and 21 group exhibitions at galleries and art fairs. Her artworks reside in private collections in USA, Europe and Asia. Visit www.raisaambros.com or follow on Instagram @raisa_ambros_art

6. MASA HAYAMI is a Japanese artist who uses her body to paint and traditional/digital methods to create 'Soul' and "Heart". Her art is inspired by her origins, Emoji, Japanese calligraphy, and ZEN. Inspired by digital innovation, she explores the very definition of 'Art' in the digital age. This work is called "When I feel like dancing, I dance". Visit www.masamihayami.tokyo

7. NICK ASTON creates 'botaniscapes' – Rich, vivid paintings that put plants front and centre. His bright, striking pieces are a celebration of the botanical world, which emphasise the integral place that plants hold in our societies. Nick explores our relationship with plants using acrylic, oil and spray paint, resulting in enticing pieces that will be an asset to any collection. To commission a personalised piece, visit www.nickastonart.com and follow @nickastonart on Instagram.

8. ANASTASIA NIKAKIS is a Melbourne based Artist who was raised in Athens, Greece. She is heavily inspired by her ancestry and incorporates her love for Art and History within her contemporary style. The intention of her art lies in her pursuit of truth, as she encapsulates her observations of society and human nature within her sculptures and large scale oil paintings. Visit www.anastasiasart.com and follow @anastasianikakis on Instagram.

9. Abstract artist FRANCE GAGGIOLI draws inspiration from a diverse range of themes: landscapes, nature, travel, fashion and the media. This artist aims to create vibrant and emotive works that allude to another world, whilst combining techniques to investigate colour, space and texture. When working with different forms of mixed media, she feels that the blank canvas takes on a new form and begins to develop a life of its own, as a new entity. Visit francegaggioli.com and follow @francegaggioli on Instagram.